Sports at Sunnyside.

A large number of people from all over Central Maui attended the sports at Sunnyside on July 4th.

The first on the programme was the base ball contest between the Maui Agricultural Co's and the Punaene's. The contest was a close one and in the last inning was won by the former team in a score of 8 to 7.

Foot races for the boys under fifteen years were participated in by a number, John Andrews won.

One hundred twenty yards dash was won by A. M. Simpson of Punaene.

The sack race was won by Yoshihara.

Sixty yards girls race was won by Addie Carley.

In the tilting David Fleming won.

A watermelon race was one of the features of the day. The contestants were required to ride their horse to a table, dismount and pick up a melon and ride the course and lay the melon down on the table. Many dropped their loads before the race was finally won by Ventura. A potato race was one of the races that afforded amusement. The contestants picked up potatoes in spoons and then mounted their horses and rode the course bringing their potatoes back to the table, that is a few did. The winner of this race was Manuel Pereira.

An automobile race was run with E. F. Deimert, E. O. Born and W. W. Westcott in the race. Deimert started out at full speed and won easily. It is said that Westcott started on low speed and failed to get his machine on high speed until too late to win.

In the polo contest the Reds easily won.

A free lunch was served for all present.

McCubbins Latest.

H. McCubbin of Lahaina knows how to tell a good story and has an unlimited stock always on hand. While in Wailuku he called at this office and related the following:

An editor of a country news paper where telegraphic news was unknown went one day to the city to learn how the great dailies are run.

The first thing that caught his eye was the bulletin board where the state of Ex-President Cleveland's health was written from hour to hour. This was enough for the country editor and on reaching home he borrowed a black board from the local school trustees and put it out in front of his office and announced he would place thereon all of the latest news of interest.

Time passed and yet nothing appeared on the board. Persons began to twit the editor on the lack of news on the board.

At the end of three weeks the editor rushed out and wrote the following:

9 a. m. Deacon Jones is ill.
10 a. m. Deacon Jones is worse.
11 a. m. Deacon Jones has sent for Doctor Pills.

130 p. m. Deacon Jones is dead and gone to Heaven. May peace rest with his soul.

A drummer passed the office that afternoon and reading the messages picked up the crayon and wrote. CONSTERNATION IN HEAVEN.
430 p. m. Deacon Jones has not arrived. The worst is feared.

An Editor to Wed.

Under the heading of "Society" the San Francisco Call of recent date publishes the following:

An engagement of general interest to San Franciscans and residents of Honolulu is that of Mrs. Castle and Walter Gifford Smith, formerly of this city, at present editor of the Commercial Advertiser of Honolulu. Mrs. Castle arrived here a few days ago, en route to Europe, and is the guest of friends across the bay. She will be joined, either here or in Germany, by Mr. Smith, and there the marriage will take place. No date has been set.

Mrs. Castle is an interesting and charming woman. Before her marriage with Mr. Castle she was instructor in Greek at a prominent Eastern university. Mr. Castle's death occurred on the fated steamer Elbe, off the German coast, some years ago.

Nunes Appointed Court Stenographer.

Joseph Nunes has been appointed stenographer of the Second Circuit Court and will assume his duties on filing his bonds in the sum of One Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and the acceptance of the same.

This office was created by an act of the last Legislature.

He and J. M. Kraus were the only applicants for the position.

The Court appointed D. H. Case, J. L. Coke and J. M. Vivas as a commission to examine the applicants and report on their qualifications.

The Commission resolved its self into a mock court and charged N. K. Otsuka with fast and furious driving on Church Street at twelve thirty o'clock at night while driving a green horse.

A number of witnesses including W. J. Coelho, A. Enos and D. H. Davis were called. Their testimony violated every rule of evidence and afforded no end of amusement to those present.

The applicants were required to take down the objections and motions of the attorneys and the rulings of the temporary judge and read and transcribe their notes.

A number of decisions of various courts were read and the applicants were required to write rapidly and read and transcribe the same.

The Commission were unanimous in their recommendation of the appointment of Nunes to the position and he received his appointment Tuesday morning.

Mr. Nunes has been in the employ of Attorney J. L. Coke for several years and is familiar with legal terms and court customs.

Waihee School Closing.

The closing exercises of the Waihee school were held on the evening of the 21st. The Teachers pupils and friends having constructed a stage in the large church adjoining the school premises. The pairs evergreens and Japanese lanterns used in decorating were arranged with pleasing effect and the church was crowded to its utmost capacity, many from Wailuku being present. The program opened with "Greeting by Hattie Maialoha and consisted of some 20 numbers which was all received with marked appreciation. Some of the recitations were excellent and Miss Lani's "Fairies" and her girls singing of the lullaby were both deserving of commendation.

Miss Maule's boys made a hit in "Our Games" and her girls in "Our Dollies." The Red White and Blue drill with tableaux was very effective and the dialogue "The School" was greatly appreciated.
